A thought from the Vicarage

by the Revd Beverley Lock

I imagine that,
like me, most of us rarely give much thought to
the Magna Carta.
We may have a vague memory
that it had something to do with King John, that it is about freedom and liberty and the rule of law and that it was signed an awfully long time ago.

We just sort of take it for granted –
it is there – foundational to our laws,
built on the premise that everybody has the right to a fair trial, that nobody, even the King, has the right to imprison anybody without them
having a fair chance to explain themselves in court. In addition to this, and foundational to this document, is that we should all have the right to follow our religion.

Are we not so fortunate?

The news is full of the most terrible atrocities. People all over the world are having these 'rights' totally ignored.
We hear daily of summary executions in countries where there is no right to a trial by jury, where rulers are those who can impose the greater fear;
where violence and money dictate the fate of ordinary men and women.

The Magna Carta was created with the advice of two Archbishops and seven bishops. One of the foundational figures in the writing of the Magna Carta was Archbishop Stephen Langton. He was an inspiration. He had not had an easy life having been exiled in France. There he had worked his way in a foreign land to become a famous teacher of the Old Testament.
He could have stayed away and enjoyed the hard won fame, but instead returned to England to try to reform his homeland.

Taking the Old Testament laws of Deuteronomy from the Bible he reframed them using the same principles of justice. It should be illegal to show favouritism or take a bribe to obtain a false judgement as it asserts in Deuteronomy 16: 18-19.

On the 18th July the General Synod of the Church of England moved that the eight hundredth anniversary of the Magna Carta next year should be, 'an important opportunity to celebrate the Charter's principles – which establish the English Church and all our citizens shall live in freedom and which have contributed to human flourishing in this country and around the world.'

So eight hundred years later this document is still the foundation for laws that secure the rights of every individual in our country to enjoy religious freedom. It safeguards the institutional independence of religious organisations, and the two billion people in the world who live in common law jurisdictions can trace their heritage to this document.
Indeed every human rights document and modern constitution has adopted
these basic premises.

However it was no accident. It took the bravery of a man like Stephen Langton and his fellows to make it happen.

Across the world today men and women of courage are working to establish these basic rights. Surely there can be no peace until there is justice. We must pray with them and for them.

Notes from The Herald, August & September 1914

Fine and warm until late September.

Orton August, no news. On Friday 28th August evening Mrs. Jane Harper died. She was 83 and the widow of John Harper. She lived at Orton for most of her life. They had two sons and one daughter – one son is at the G.P.O. Glasgow in a senior post, the other was a grocer in Orton now retired to Wetherby; their daughter is Mr. G. B. Bayliffe's wife in Shap. The funeral was at Orton. On 26th June (see Deaths, 5th Sept) in Sassoon Hospital, Poona, India, died William Sharp, Vice Principal of Victoria College, Gwalior, the second son of J. B. Sharp, Orton. He was aged 24.

1864 The late Mr. Marmaduke Holme's eldest sister Isabella, widow of Matthew Harrison, (Penrith) died at her grandson, J. Connel's house in Melville Street, Edinburgh on 5th September aged 89. Thomas Bland, postmaster, 77, died at Orton on 3rd September.

1914 Greenholme School needs a new Headmistress.

Tebay School needs an Assistant Teacher (female, certificated), August 1914. In late July Tebay Cricketers played Kendal Grammar School: Tebay 69, KGS 43. So far they have played 10, won 4, drawn 3, lost 3 (as at 1st August). Tebay Station's machine that throws the mailbags into trains going by, misfired on Thursday 13th at 2a.m. and Ravenstonedale's and Kirkby Stephen's sped onto the tracks. Tebay Primitive Methodist Chapel Anniversary on Sunday 6th with a lot there; the first chapel dates from 1865. Their Harvest Festival was on 20th September. Died at High Gate on 29th July, Nancy Bousfield, 78; at Old Tebay on 18th August, Ruth Joel, 87. Six Tebay farms will have new tenants next Spring – changes as reported on 26th September:

1. Tebay Gill - Mr. C. Wills: he goes to Town Head, Old Tebay; (Tebay Gill's new tenant – Mr. Shepherd Wills.

2. Rowbank - Miss Cowperthwaite retires: relet to Mr. J. Burton now at Lunds in Mallerstang.

3. Loupsfell Side - Mr. H. Blackett; let to Mr. William Sharpe now of

4. Midfield, Gaisgill - relet to Mr. H. Dodd

5. Scale Gill Mr. Dixon is leaving, now re-let to Mr. H. Dodd

6. Borrow Bridge - Mr. Jackson retires, last of the several generations of Jacksons here; relet to Mr. Capstick now at Marthwaite in Ravenstonedale.

Ravenstonedale lost from Causeway End (Mr. W. Dixon) a ewe and half-bred lamb. Arbitration for Town Head Farm (4 claimants) adjourned. A crowded meeting heard first-hand description of Germany's invasion of Belgium at a mid-September meeting.

A Christian Alphabet—An occasional series.

H

Heaven and Hell: Heaven is the abode of God – “Our Father in heaven”; but is also the promised eternal home of those who trust in Christ. But Jesus also taught that the Kingdom of Heaven is “among you” – that if God is our King, and we seek to bring about his rule here on earth, the kingdom of heaven is built here and now, even if it only finally and wholly fulfilled in the next life, where all will be made new. Hell is not a popular subject; but no one warned us more about it than Jesus. Hell is sometimes described in terms like “burning”, but also “outer darkness”. It is a terrible reality, eternal exile from God, to which a final decision to reject the love of God condemns us.

Holy Spirit: The phrase “Holy Ghost” is used in the 16th century language of the King James Bible and the Book of Common Prayer, but “Spirit” is a more helpful word – there is nothing “spooky” about the Holy Spirit! He is the 3rd person of the Trinity – a person, not a thing. He opens our mind and heart to understand more of God, and awakens faith to respond to him; he gives us eternal, spiritual life, and works in our character – as we co-operate with him – to make us more like Jesus. He gives us spiritual gifts to enable us to serve Christ effectively.

House of God: A phrase sometimes, but wrongly, used of church buildings. Though in the Old Testament, the Temple was sometimes described in this way, in the New Testament the House of God is made not of bricks or timber, but people – “living stones”, who are being built into a spiritual house. “YOU are the temple of the Holy Spirit.” God dwells not in man-made structures but in his people who worship and serve him.

A VIEW FROM TEBAY

By Rosemary Campbell

What a fantastic summer we have had. It was good to see the Football on the Rec have glorious sunshine albeit Kendal Calling at Lowther and the Total Warrior at Shap had quite some weather for their special weekends. Sadly the picnic at Ruth Parsley's farm in Roundthwaite was rained off and so relocated to the chapel but nevertheless a good time was had by all.

We are so fortunate to be able to get to local events such as Potfest in the Park and in the Pens and to have such lovely places to visit. I have been fortunate to have friends to stay and I made a first visit to the Dalemain gardens. There were beautiful flowers to see and a lovely walk down by the river there. I even had a pub crawl in Tebay with a friend who enjoys his Guinness! We Christians aren't always as stuffy as we may seem at times! We are fortunate to have the Social Club, the Cross Keys and the Barnaby Rudge. The best Guinness apparently is served at the Cross Keys. Let's support them all as best we can.

It has been good to see the 10 – 12 Monday Drop In's in the Hub well attended by villagers and friends from Orton and Shap as well as visitors to our area. Please do call in for a coffee and a chat. There are library books available and books to buy as well as beautiful homemade jams and chutneys and cards. We have some of us of more senior years as well as youngsters – all are welcome. Tuesday's Drop Ins at the Chapel are going well too. In such a spread out village its good for us to get together socially more. The Community Choir is going well on Monday evenings and has continued during the school holidays.

St James' has a stall in Orton Church on Orton Farmers' Market days. We would welcome good quality bric-a-brac and other items for this to help towards keeping our little church going. Please leave any items at the back of the church under the back pews; it's open daily 10am – 4pm. Alternatively bring them to the Drop In on Monday – many thanks!

We have had the Holiday Club in the Hub which has also been popular. Plenty of crafts went on and fun with the parachute outside as well as a very good contemporary band last Tuesday. There are some very musical children in our midst. There was an enjoyable Family Service in August when most of the usual congregation and service leaders and musicians were on holiday but we had a lively service even so and the congregation joined in enthusiastically. We looked at the subject of journeys and I took along a haversack with things we may need, but of course I had forgotten some most important items – nappies as pointed out by one of the Mums!

As we think about journeys we can be assured that God is with us whatever our situations. Sometimes we have to face serious illness, family difficulties, pain, or depression and anxiety. God may not take this away but the important thing is to know that He is with us in whatever we may face and can give us strength and peace in it all.

Many thanks for the generosity of the Tebay School parents, students and both current and past. It has been a privilege to work with the Tebay children and community. The time, support and commitment the community gives to its children is second to none! The Journey to Ordination

A journey often takes time ... and my journey to ordination as a priest in the Anglican Church started some years ago when I was 18 years old! That was a long time ago and was the route that I would like to have taken on leaving school. However, such a pathway was not open to me and it was probably not the right pathway at the time. I had listened to God carefully and prayerfully at the time and felt called to some form of ministry but none at that time was available as women could not be ordained. The process took some time but the call was always there throughout my life.

I went into teaching, married and had children and I found that my family life and experience became an important part of judging if this was the correct route for me. I always had positions of involvement in churches that I attended, e.g. PCCs/PCC Secretary/worship leader and also a leader of some of the uniformed organisations on behalf of the church.

However, one day in 2007 the opportunity arose for me to do more, and once again God (and others) spoke to me,

"I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' And I said, 'Here am I; send me!'" Isaiah 6: 8

It was not difficult as there were so many opportunities available. I completed a 'Called to Serve' course which is an excellent self-discernment process. There was much further discernment by the diocese which resulted in a selection panel followed by training (which continues throughout the life of clergy in some way). I have been fortunate in attending many of the well known theological colleges during summer schools and sharing the journey with others.

I was then ordained: this is the act of conferring holy orders upon someone, an appointment to church ministry. The first stage is ordination to the role of deacon or minister of the Church. This role is one of servanthood, as the word derives from the Greek word diakonos 'servant' to perform the acts of service and listening; serving and being served; and building bridges to the wider community. A deacon's ministry is an assistant ministry. However, after a very positive and constructive first year as a deacon, I looked forward to "priesting". Priesthood is official or fully recognised ministry that involves presiding at the Eucharist (Holy Communion), praying for others (which is our job), pronouncing the Blessing, absolving sins (forgiving), preaching the scriptures, and helping others to discover what gifts God has given them and helping to develop their ministry. After all we are all part of the body of Christ:

"For as one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members of one another." Romans 12:4-6

Before my priesting I felt a very strong sense of God saying,

"You did not choose me. I chose you and sent you out to produce fruit, the kind of fruit that will last." John 15: 16

This is my task for the future and the task of all disciples of God. We are all God's ministers in some way. I thank you all for sharing and being part of my journey to my ordination as priest, as I could not have done this without your support and encouragement.

This hospital in Kolkata (sponsored by the Leprosy Mission) offers free treatment to Leprosy sufferers. Leprosy is a destructive disease which not only disfigures those who suffer from it, but the stigma that is attached, often means people are unable to work or live with their loved ones. The Leprosy Mission work very hard to offer not only treatment, but strive to change attitudes and offer training in new skills so that they can regain some dignity in life and earn a living -and we all deserve a second chance - don't we?

A student's summer

I should not have felt nervous starting my teacher training placement just two miles down the road from my home. It was unexpected to come back to Cumbria so soon, as I was expecting a city based placement near Edge Hill University, where I am doing my Primary education degree. However, I thoroughly enjoyed my placement at Tebay primary school, where I felt very welcome. I was based in class 1, where I taught a range of subjects and went on a range of class trips. One of my favourite topics I taught was based on 'The Bog Baby' book, where the children engaged in making their own bog babies; used drama to act out the story; created their own story based on the book and went on a trip to Bluebell Wood where they made habitats for their bog babies.

The following month I found myself thousands of miles away in Asia on a trip, in a team of six, from the church I attend whilst at university. We spent two weeks getting to know the culture, language and sharing with Christian students. We spent a packed week encouraging each other and sharing our faith from very different countries and cultures. The week also included morning dance at 7am - who does not want to start the day with cha cha slide or 5, 6, 7, 8?

Back in Tebay, I have been a coach at the annual Tebay Soccer School, for the fourth year. The soccer school is a great opportunity for children in the area to improve their football skills; it also encourages children to work as a team, take part, support one another and have a great time as well. A highlight for me is the opportunity to think about the Christian faith and what that means to the children and the coaches. A few coaches shared what a relationship with God means to them. On the last day the children compete in world cup matches, where in the previous three years my team have won. However, this is the first year as a senior coach that my team haven't won: there's always next year!

In the middle of all this, I still have work at Kennedy's, Orton and the King's Head, Ravenstonedale and a family holiday to fit in!

Still to come... at the beginning of September I am going camping for 5 days with friends from the Christian Union at Edge Hill University. These few days are a national event, where thousands of students from all over the UK meet together to worship God, get to know each other better, have training in leadership and sharing faith with friends and planning for the year ahead. In the midst of all this there are plenty of sporting competitions, free time to chill, evening entertainment and activities to do, making a great week, before returning to university.

He needs a number of people who have a photograph of a family member who fought in WWI and are themselves prepared to be photographed and share a little family history.

'Tell the Gospel in your own words'

This is a five week course to be run weekly on Tuesdays from 2nd to 30th September.

Its aim is to look at 5 weeks'
lectionary passages and explore together the basics of putting together a 'talk' based on the Bible readings from the Common Worship Lectionary for those weeks.

This course does not commit anyone to speaking in public – it is an opportunity to explore the first stages of 'preaching'. It will however give participants the opportunity to gain confidence and find their own voice in a friendly and supportive group. The sessions will be an hour long followed by an optional additional session of coaching in presentation skills.

If you would like to join this group please speak to Beverley Lock

Mining in Cumbria

At the June meeting of the Orton and Tebay Local History Society, 20 members and 20 visitors enjoyed an instructive and highly entertaining presentation on "Mining in Cumbria" by Ian Tyler.

The speaker has written several books on the subject, some of which have been awarded the "Cumbria Book of the Year" prize, and is extremely knowledgeable on both the history and the technology and techniques of local mining.

Cumbria is extremely rich in minerals of many kinds, and they have been mined for many centuries from the Romans onwards. Queen Elizabeth the first invited expert German miners across to England, to teach their skills to the local miners, who learned fast.

The speaker passed around the audience a variety of metals and the ores from which they are derived. The different weights, colours and textures were fascinating; one lump of metal the size of a fist astonished everyone by its great weight, and there were many guesses as to what it was – it was in fact tungsten, which no one knew how to use for many years, but is now a vital part of the highest grades of steel. Iron, of course, is essential for most aspects of modern life. One of the first uses of copper was in coinage, but of course has many uses in the electrical and plumbing industries among others. The ore from which it is derived has often been mistaken for gold – as illustrated in the Arthur Ransome book, "Pigeon Post".

The speaker was warmly thanked by the Chairman, Philip Rigby, and applauded enthusiastically by the audience. This meeting was the first one that the Society has held in Orton Methodist Chapel, which will be the venue in alternate months in future.

ORTON MANOR COURT

Abridged Minutes of AGM, 28th JULY 2014

Present:- 4 Officers, 10 Freeholders, and 2 visitors.
There were three Apologies for absence.

1. Minutes of the AGM held on Monday 8th July 2013 were agreed .
2. Chairman's Remarks: Kyle Blue welcomed those attending the meeting, and thanked the Committee for their work
3. Treasurer's report - Richard Percival reported that the Income since the 2013 AGM was £1,878.11, that the Expenditure was £2,383.04. Deficit: £504.93. Closing balance: £10,077.28
4. Steward's Report: Wendy Higgins gave a brief history of Orton Manor Court, including a recently discovered note from the 1930s which indicated how the Manor Court had developed its modern form in the 20th century.
 - a. The Manor Court had made three donations towards the School Jubilee Garden totalling £900. The Garden had won awards and was a credit to the school and community.
 - b. The Dame School had been renovated inside and out and printed information boards had been installed. She thanked those involved..
 - c. The planters in the Square had been totally cleared and beautifully replanted without charge and the plants had been given by another donor.
 - d. The Map and Information Board designed by Pauline Henderson (displayed at the back of the Hall) was nearing completion. The exact wording to go around the map was still incomplete. How the board would be mounted (on the green outside the toilets), whether a metal stand or dry stone plinth, was under consideration.

5. Other Matters Raised:

a. Dame School: Chris Jenkin reported that there were 56 comments in the Visitors' Book there, from all over UK and several overseas visitors, including children.

b. Verges: Judy Dunford reported that Cumbria Wildlife Trust was planning to collect wildflower seeds from various verges. Concern was expressed that the Council no longer had an environmental officer so that mowing the verges might be without any sensitive control.

There being no further business, the meeting closed at 8.07 p.m.

The next meeting of the Committee is on Monday 29th September at 7.30 p.m.

Free veg course promises a crop of new growers

Places on a free veg-growing course are being snapped up by Eden residents keen to grow their own food.

There are just a few places left on the one-day course on Sunday 21 September, organised by Penrith and Eden District Freegle as part of their 'Grow Your Own' campaign, in association with Penrith Action for Community Transition (PACT).

"People have told us at events and in our surveys that they'd like to grow their own food but don't have the knowledge," said Chris Cant from Freegle. "We've been running regular Visiting Edible Gardens (VEG) events since the spring to let people learn from experienced growers and the training course is the next step."

The training day will be run by Vista Veg, Eden's veg-box scheme, at their polytunnel site in Crosby Ravensworth.

"The course will cover planning out space and what to grow, when to plant and harvest, how to sow seeds successfully, taking cuttings, transplanting, caring for growing plants and harvesting crops and seeds for the next year," Chris said. "It's a hands-on, beginner's guide to growing food, which we hope will produce a crop of new veg growers! If demand is high enough, we may put on another date."

To book a place on the September course or register an interest in a future date, visit the PACT website at www.penrithact.org.uk or contact Chris at chris@phdcc.com or 01931 713240.

The Oxford Concert Party plays in Orton

A decidedly unstuffy bunch of superb musicians – look out for them whenever your spirits need a lift.” Daily Telegraph

The Oxford Concert Party will be bringing its unique blend of vibrant virtuosity to Orton Market Hall at the beginning of October as part of the Autumn Highlights season – and this will be the popular ensemble’s only Cumbrian date as they head to the northeast after Orton.

Europe’s only Baroque and Tango Orchestra (!) will be taking three hundred years of music from around the world, turning it upside down, infusing it with humour and adding its own energy and passion. This should be a thoroughly enjoyable night of music ranging from Vivaldi to Piazzolla via Argentinian Tango, Jewish Klezmer, French café music and melodies from Eastern Europe, Ireland and Scotland.

“Totally different, crazy and triumphant with a peculiar vitality.” BBC Radio

His lecture: 'Significant and Joyous Moments of being in the Mountains' is vividly illustrated by his mountain photography.

Beginning with his early days climbing on the gritstone of Derbyshire, through to routes on the highest of the world's mountains and overland trips to North Africa, Turkey and Kurdistan, this lecture is a very personal account of a lifetime spent amongst the world's highest peaks.

We are expecting this, once again, to be a very popular talk and so tickets are now on sale:

£15-00; £10-00 for under 18s.

SHOP MOVES INTO HOTEL

After 6 years in its current location, The Black Swan Village Store is moving into the hotel. Most of our customers will already have received letters informing them of the changes, which are necessary due to consistent losses. We will be offering the same service & the majority of products currently sold, from within the hotel. Changes will be made to the newspaper arrangements, so it is very important that those customers who wish to continue to receive their newspapers pre-order with the shop staff in advance, as we will no longer be ordering 'buffer' stock.

We would like to thank all of our locals who have supported the Store during the last 6 years, and urge you to continue to do so from within the hotel, where our shop staff will be 're-deployed'!

TITHES (from some papers of Orton Church)

While doing some research at the Records Office I came across the method by which the tithes were paid in 1749. I hope you find it as fascinating as I did!

To the said Vicarage is also belonging the Tithe of Wool throughout the Parish; & the manner of tithing is this: The Owner lays his whole year's produce in five Parcels or Heaps. The Vicar, or Person employed by him, chuseth one of the five Heaps, which he pleaseth, & divides the same into two Parts; of which two Parts the Owner chuseth one, & leaves the other to the Vicar for his tenth Part. Item: the Tithe of Lambs in their proper kind throughout the Parish; & the Custom concerning them is this: If a Person's number is one, he pays a penny; if two he pays two pence; if three he pays three pence; if four he pays four pence; if five he pays half a lamb; if six a whole lamb, the Vicar paying back four pence; if seven, three pence; if eight, two pence; if nine, one penny; if ten the Vicar hath a lamb compleat. And in like manner for every number above ten. And if a man's number is under fifty the Tithe is taken thus; The Owner takes up two; then the Vicar takes one; then the Owner takes nine; then again the Vicar takes one; and so on, till he hath taken the number due to him. If they are fifty or upwards, they are put in a Place together, and run out singly, through a Hole or Gap; the two first that come out are the Owners; the third the Vicar's; then the Owner has the next nine; then the Vicar one; & so on, till the Vicar has his number. And if Sheep are sold in the Spring, the Tithe of Lambs is paid by the Person with whom they were lambled, whether seller or buyer. Item; The Tithe of Pigs in like manner. Item; The Tithe of Eggs about Easter; two eggs for each old Hen and Duck, & one egg for each Chicken or Duck of the first year. Item; By every Person who sows Hemp is paid yearly one penny. Item; For each Plough is paid yearly one penny. Item; By every Person keeping bees is paid yearly one penny.
